Green & Black's offers no compromise – great taste and the finest organic ingredients. Our aim is to create great tasting chocolate. We believe that every step from bean to bar is equally important - whether it's using the finest organically grown cocoa beans or taking that extra time and care to bring out the intense flavor that has become our trademark.

First introduced in England in 1991, Green & Black's, the world's first organic chocolate, made the voyage to the United States in 2003. In addition to their popular chocolate bars, chocolate lovers also can enjoy Green & Black's hot chocolate and baking bars.
